

Serving the Whole Learner Symposium

Identifying Challenges and Uncovering Solutions

Friday, February 22, 2019 | 9:00 am - 3:30 pm

Hillview Middle School Performing Arts Center
1100 Elder Avenue, Menlo Park CA 94025

The Symposium includes an in-person meeting with limited seating and a live broadcast with unlimited capacity. County Offices of Education and Districts group viewing is encouraged. The event will be video archived. The Symposium is free and open to administrators, teachers, care givers, and parents.

Symposium Objectives:

- Outline challenges in each whole learner tenet includes challenged, supported engaged, safe and healthy
- Ascertain whole learner approaches that lead to better student outcomes
- Identify tools, promising practices and resources that align with all the whole child tenets

Register for Live Broadcast
or In-person Event

On-line live broadcast

https://wls_in_person.eventbrite.com

In-person meeting at Hillview Middle School Performing Arts Center

1100 Elder Avenue, Menlo Park CA 94025

https://wls_live_broadcast.eventbrite.com

AGENDA

Welcome

Menlo City Park School District Superintendent, Dr. Erik Burmeister

Setting the Stage

California Department of Education Chief Deputy, Lupita Cortez Alcalá

A Call to Center our Vision Around the Whole Learner

Director at the Chan Zuckerberg Initiative, Dr. Brooke Stafford-Brizard

Panel Discussion: Whole Child Tenets Overview

Chief External Officer at the Partnership for Los Angeles Schools, Ryan Smith

Chief Impact Officer at AltSchools, Dr. Devin Vodicka,

Director of Fresno Unified Nutrition Services, Jose Alvarado

Social and Emotional Advisor at the Partnership Children & Youth, Katie Brackenridge

Research & State Policy Director Public Health Advocates, Dr. Flojaune Cofer

Whole Child Challenges & Uncovering Solutions: World Café Activity

Facilitators: Whole Child Tenets Overview Panel Leads

Closing Remarks

Director at the Chan Zuckerberg Initiative, Dr. Brooke Stafford-Brizard

Chief Impact Officer at AltSchools, Dr. Devin Vodicka

Chief External Officer at the Partnership for Los Angeles Schools, Ryan Smith

Presented by the One System Whole Child Initiative in partnership with the California PBIS Coalition. Sponsored by the Council of Chief State School Officers Innovative Lab Network